

CONSTITUTION OF THE SNOQUALMIE TRIBE OF INDIANS

PREAMBLE

We, the Indians of the Snoqualmie Tribe, being the direct descendants of the signatories of the Governor Steven's Point Elliot Treaty of 1855, for the purpose of securing the rights and powers inherent in our sovereign status and guaranteed to us by the Point Elliott Treaty of 1855, structuring our Tribal government, governing our Tribal community, promoting the social and economic well-being of our Tribal people, securing our aboriginal rights and privileges, preserving our culture and traditions, fostering justice and freedom, and advancing our mutual welfare, do hereby approve and adopt this Constitution

ARTICLE I – NAME AND SOVEREIGNTY

Section 1. Name. The legal name of the tribal organization created by this Constitution shall be the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe.

Section 2. Sovereignty. The aboriginal and inherent sovereign power of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe is vested in the Snoqualmie Tribal Council and limited only as expressly and unambiguously provided by federal law

Section 3. Sovereign immunity. The Snoqualmie Indian Tribe is immune from suit except to the extent that the Tribal Council expressly and unambiguously waives its sovereign immunity.

Section 4. Jurisdiction.

- (a) The jurisdiction and governmental power of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe extends to all persons, property, lands, both running waters, and lakes, airspace, all natural resources, both living and dead; all activities occurring within the exterior boundaries of the Snoqualmie Indian Reservation or lands now or hereafter held in trust by the federal government for the Tribe or any member of the Tribe, so long as those lands are not within the boundaries of the reservation of another tribe; and;
- (b) The Snoqualmie Indian Tribe shall also have jurisdiction over all other persons, property, resources, territory and subject matter to protect or exercise any rights and powers reserved and granted the Tribe by treaty or by the Constitution and laws of the United States.

ARTICLE II – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The Snoqualmie Indian Tribe has the right to determine Tribal membership in accordance with the Tribe's Constitution.

Section 2. A person shall be eligible for membership in the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe if that person is living, applies for membership and meets the following criteria:

- (a) All persons of Snoqualmie Indian blood whose names appear on Charles Roblin's schedule of Unenrolled Indians as of January 1, 1919. These persons of Snoqualmie Indian blood whose names appear on Charles Roblin's schedule of Unenrolled Indians as of January 1, 1919, shall be the Base Roll of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe.
- (b) All descendants of persons who qualify for Tribal membership under Article II, Section 2 (a) provided that such descendants possess at least one-eighth (1/8th) degree of Snoqualmie Indian blood.
- (c) All persons who do not qualify for membership under Article II, Section 2 (a) or (b), must be a biological child of an enrolled Snoqualmie Tribal member, provided that such persons possess Snoqualmie Indian blood.
- (d) Any Indian person who is adopted in accordance with the acts and resolutions of the Tribal Council, provided however that an Indian adoptee shall not be eligible to hold an elected office and shall not share in any judgement fund or per capita payments otherwise available to enrolled Snoqualmie tribal members pursuant to sub-sections (a) and (b) of this section. Indian adoptees shall have only those rights and privileges actually bestowed by the Tribal Council at the time of adoption.
- (e) All non-Indian persons adopted as honorary members of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe. Non-Indians are restricted to the status of honorary membership and in no case shall an honorary member be entitled to hold an elected office, to vote or participate in any tribal affairs or share in any distribution of tribal funding reserved for enrolled Snoqualmie Indians pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of this section.

Section 3. Dual Enrollment is prohibited. No person shall be eligible for membership in the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe who is currently a member of any other organized Tribe, band, or Indian community officially recognized by the Secretary of the Interior, or not so recognized.

Section 4. Any Snoqualmie Indian Tribal member may voluntarily relinquish their enrollment from the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe at any time pursuant to the enrollment laws of the Tribe. A Tribal member, 18 years or older, who voluntarily relinquishes their enrollment, in their own name, with the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe shall be prohibited from seeking re-enrollment as a member of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe.

Section 5. Snoqualmie Tribal membership is a privilege that may be revoked by the General Council for cause as determined by the acts and resolutions of the tribe. The General Council may impose a penalty of full or partial banishment against any enrolled tribal member for good cause in accord with Snoqualmie Tribal tradition or the acts and resolutions of the tribe.

Section 6. The Tribal Council shall approve or deny all enrollment applications, based on criteria provided in the Constitution and laws of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe. The Snoqualmie General Council shall be the final determinate, and have the power to make all final appeal decisions regarding membership, of who is or who is not a member of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe. Questions regarding membership are matters within the exclusive internal sovereignty of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe and not justiciable in any court of law.

ARTICLE III – GENERAL COUNCIL

Section 1. Membership in the General Council. All members of The Snoqualmie Indian Tribe shall be members of the General Council.

Section 2. Voting. Members of the General Council age 18 years or older, who present at the appointed time and place of elections, shall be permitted to vote in General Council meetings.

Section 3. Meetings.

(a) The annual meeting of the General Council shall be held in May of each year.

(b) All meetings of the General Council shall be announced by the Tribal Council by mailing notices to each member at least ten (10) days in advance of the meeting and by publishing notice in newspaper of general circulation commonly read by the Tribal Membership.

- (c) Special meetings may be called by the Tribal Council or by ten percent (10%) of the voting membership by giving notice to the Tribal Council.
- (d) The purpose of the General Council meeting shall be to elect or recall the members of the Tribal Council and to declare the will of the General Council on issues placed before the General Council as reflected in the agenda and by persons raising issues from the floor at any Annual Meeting.
- (e) A quorum for conducting business at any meeting shall be forty (40) voting members.
- (f) The agenda for the Annual Meeting shall be published by the Secretary of the Tribe. All items to be placed on the agenda shall be submitted to the Secretary thirty (30) days in advance of the annual meeting. Items on the agenda shall be considered before issues or questions raised from the floor.
- (g) A majority of the Snoqualmie Tribal Council may call the General Council into Special or Emergency session.
- (h) In addition to the annual meeting, quarterly General meetings may be held.

ARTICLE IV – GOVERNING BODY

Section 1. The governing Body of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe shall be known as the Snoqualmie Tribal Council.

Section 2. Membership. The Tribal Council shall consist of nine (9) members duly elected to serve four year staggered terms and a separately elected Tribal Chairperson who shall also serve a four year term. There shall also be a permanent lifetime position on the Tribal Council known as the Tribal Elder. The Tribal Elder serves as an advisory member of the Tribal Council with full rights to participate in deliberations of the Tribal Council but the Tribal Elder shall not vote as a member of the Tribal Council.

Section 3. Alternate Council Members. In addition to the regularly elected members of the Tribal Council specified in Section 3 of this Article, there shall be two alternate council members. Alternate council members shall run separately for office and serve two year terms. The alternate council candidates shall stand for election in the year 2003. Thereafter, alternate council members shall be elected every two years. Alternate council members shall attend all scheduled council meetings, may participate in the deliberations of the council proceedings but may not vote unless their service is needed to establish a quorum.

Section 4. Council Chiefs. Members of the Chiefs Council may participate in the deliberations of the Tribal Council but may not vote unless their services are needed to establish a quorum and the Alternate Council members are seated or absent.

Section 5. Organizing Elections. At the first election of the Tribal Council, five members shall be elected for a four (4) year term in the year 2003; and four members shall be elected for terms of four years in 2004. Thereafter, the terms of office for all Tribal Council members shall be for four (4) years.

Section 6. The Tribal Chairperson. The Tribal Chairperson shall be elected for a term of four (4) years.

ARTICLE V – TRIBAL OFFICERS

Section 1. Council. The Tribal Council chairperson shall be elected as designated in Article IV. The Tribal Council shall elect from its members: 1) a vice-chairperson, 2) a secretary, and 3) a treasurer, and may appoint such other officials and committees as are considered necessary. The Tribal Council shall elect officers annually not later than the first Tribal Council meeting following the annual General Council meeting.

Section 2. Tribal Chairperson. The chairperson presides over the meetings of the tribal council and the General Council; represents the tribe at official functions and presents the annual tribal budget to the Tribal Council for formal approval. The Chairperson shall sign the official contracts and other instruments of the tribe but only after their approval by the Tribal Council.

Section 3. Vice-Chairperson. The Vice-Chairperson shall assume the duties of the Chairperson during the absence or disability of the Chairperson. The Vice-Chairperson shall become the Chairperson of the tribe upon the death, resignation or removal of the Chairperson and serve until a successor is duly qualified and elected.

Section 4. Secretary. The Secretary shall be the custodian of the official records of the tribe and exercise those powers contained in Article IX of the Tribal Constitution.

Section 5. Treasurer. The Treasurer of the tribe counter-signs checks drawn by the tribe, periodically reviews the vouchers, books and other financial records of the tribe and serves as the chief fundraising officer for the tribe's non-profit entities.

ARTICLE VI – NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Eligibility to vote and hold office. All members of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe eighteen (18) years of age or older shall be eligible to vote, and any qualified voter twenty-one (21) years or older may become a candidate for the Tribal Council. No more than two related persons residing in the same household may be elected to serve on the Tribal Council during the same year. Otherwise the Tribal Council shall be the sole judge of the qualifications of its own members.

Section 2. Election dates. The first election under this constitution shall be held according to the organizing requirements of Article V, Section 5 and conducted pursuant the tribal election law and procedure.

Section 3. Election procedures. Election procedures shall be in accordance with the election laws and procedures adopted by the Tribal Council. The election laws and procedures shall require nomination procedures, voting by secret ballot, and shall prescribe the duties of the election board, outline procedures for settlement of election disputes, tie votes, and shall include any further provisions which are consistent with this Constitution.

ARTICLE VII – VACANCIES AND REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

Section 1. Vacancies. If a member of the Tribal Council or other officer dies, resigns, or is removed from office due to neglect of duty, gross malfeasance or gross misconduct or any other reason provided for in this Article, the Tribal Council shall declare the position vacant and shall appoint a new member to serve until the next regular election.

Section 2. Expulsion.

(a) The Tribal Council may expel any Council member for neglect of duty, gross malfeasance or gross misconduct. The Council member who is the target of an expulsion action must be furnished notice of the charges, together with advance notice of the hearing which must be at least thirty (30) days prior to the hearing date. At the hearing, an accused must be given an opportunity to answer the charges and confront witnesses against him or her at the hearing held for that purpose. The expulsion hearing date may be continued from time to time for good cause shown at the discretion of the Tribal Council.

- (b) At least seven-ninths (7/9) of the members of the Tribal Council must vote in favor of expulsion to validate the expulsion. The Chairperson shall be permitted to vote. The vote shall be held within thirty (30) days of the furnishing of written notice. The position shall be filled in the same manner as provided in Article V. Section 1.
- (c) A Council member who has been removed shall have the right within thirty (30) days of the vote for removal to file an appeal to the General Council. In the event of such an appeal, the Tribal Council shall promptly call a special meeting of the General Council, at which special meeting, it shall be decided whether the removed officer shall be permanently removed. Failure to obtain a quorum of the General Membership at such a special meeting shall be considered affirmation of removal of any officer.
- (d) In the event of a council member or officer misses three (3) or more consecutively scheduled meetings without good cause, the Tribal Council may replace such members for neglect of duty. Positions shall be filled by the Tribal Council until the next regular scheduled General Membership meeting whereupon, the General Membership shall affirm the selection of the Tribal Council or fill the position with another candidate.

Section 3. Recall. Upon a petition of at least one-third (1/3) of the eligible voters of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe, it shall be the duty of the Tribal Council to call a special meeting of the General Council to consider the recall of a member or members of the Council named in such petition. If a majority of those voting at the meeting favor a recall from office, the office shall be declared vacant and an election shall be held to fill the vacancy in accordance with tribal election law and procedures. No recall petition shall be submitted with-in six (6) months after the election of the member named in the petition.

ARTICLE VIII – POWERS OF THE COUNCIL

Section 1. Powers. The Tribal Council of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe may exercise the following powers subject to all express restrictions upon such powers contained in this Constitution:

- (a) To negotiate with and enter into agreements with the Federal, State, and Local Governments, foundations, corporations or private organizations or persons on behalf of the Tribe; and to advise and consult with the representatives of the Department of the Interior on all activities of the Department that may affect the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe.

Section 1. General Referendum. Within thirty (30) days of the receipt of a petition of thirty-five (35) or more of the eligible voters, or at the written request of the majority of the members of the Tribal Council, the Chairman shall call a special meeting of the eligible voters, to consider whether any proposed resolution or ordinance or other action shall thereafter remain in effect, provided that thirty-five (35) or more eligible voters shall vote on such a referendum. This Article may be further implemented by legislation, but this referendum power is subject to the prohibition in Article XI, Section 1(9) on impairment of Contracts.

Section 2. Referendum on Disposition of Non-Trust Land and Assets. Within thirty (30), days of the receipt of a petition of Fifty (50) or more of the eligible voters, or at the written request of the majority of the members of the Tribal Council, the Chairman shall call a special meeting of the eligible voters, to consider issues concerning Non-Trust Land and Assets in excess of 2 million dollars. Any proposed resolution or ordinance or other action shall thereafter remain in effect, provided that fifty (50) or more eligible voters shall vote and two-thirds (2/3rds) approve the referendum.

ARTICLE XIII – INITIATIVE

The members of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe may propose a resolution, ordinance, or other action permitted under the Tribal Constitution by an initiative petition signed by at least thirty-five (35) of the eligible voters. Within thirty (30) days from the receipt of said petition, the chairman-person shall call a special meeting of eligible voters to vote on the initiative. A majority vote of the voters attending the meeting shall determine whether the initiative shall go into effect, provided that thirty-five (35) or more of the eligible voters shall vote on the initiative. This Article may be further implemented by legislation.

ARTICLE XIV – ENVIRONMENT AND HERITAGE

Nature and its biodiversity, the environment and the tribal heritage are the responsibility of every tribal member. The tribal government shall endeavor to guarantee for every tribal member the right to a healthy environment and the possibility to influence the decisions that concern their own living environment.

ARTICLE XV – PER CAPITA PAYMENTS

Section 1. The Tribal Council may in its sovereign discretion authorize per capita payments to enrolled tribal members out of net retained earnings from gaming enterprise revenue and other tribally controlled economic development enterprises. Per capita payments to enrolled tribal members shall not exceed 20% of the net retained earnings at any time. Per capita payments shall not be distributed to any tribal member without conclusive on the record proof that the member is validly enrolled as a Snoqualmie tribal citizen with one-eighth Snoqualmie blood quantum. Non-enrolled spouses of enrolled tribal members may not receive per capita payments.

Section 2. Per Capita Payments to Minors. Distributions to minors shall be maintained in fiduciary trust in accordance with tribal law.

Section 3. Net retained earnings shall not include earnings from any tribally controlled enterprise unless the enterprise has been operating for two full calendar years.

Section 4. The Tribal Council shall implement this Article through tribal legislation.

ARTICLE XVI – AMENDMENTS

The Constitution and Bylaws may be amended or revised by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of eligible voters of the Tribe present and voting at an election called for that purpose, provided that at least thirty-five (35) eligible voters shall vote in the election. The Tribal Constitution as amended shall always be displayed officially as a whole document.

ARTICLE XVII – ADOPTION

This Constitution shall be effective from the date of ratification when ratified by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of eligible voters of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe present and voting at a called meeting of the General Council of all tribal members, provided that at least thirty-five (35) eligible voters shall vote in the election.
