

AN ACT RELATING TO

SNOQUALMIE TRIBAL COUNCIL PROCEDURES

BE IT ENACTED BY THE SNOQUALMIE TRIBAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1.0 – TITLE AND CODIFICATION

This Chapter shall be known as the Snoqualmie Tribal Council Procedures Act and shall be codified as Title 2, Chapter 1 of the Snoqualmie Tribal Code.

SECTION 2.0 – STATUTORY AUTHORIZATION

The aboriginal and inherent sovereign power of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe to govern is vested in the Snoqualmie Tribal Council. The Snoqualmie Tribal Council has the authority to safeguard and promote the peace, safety, moral and general welfare of the Members of the Tribe by regulating the behavior of all persons within the jurisdiction of the Tribe, and to provide for the enactment and enforcement of the laws of the Tribe. This authority includes the authority to adopt laws regulating the procedure of the Council itself. Snoqualmie Tribal Constitution, Art. VIII, Sec. 1 (o).

SECTION 3.0 – PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The purpose of this Chapter is to enact provisions of law that establish and define the procedures of the Tribal Council.

All Tribal Council Members are expected to comply with the Constitution and all applicable provisions of this Code, and at all times act ethically, impartially, and in a professional and civil manner in the best interest of the Tribe as a whole.

SECTION 4.0 – DEFINITIONS

CHECK SIGNERS are designated on a yearly basis by way of Resolution, consisting of the Tribal Treasurer and three members of the Tribal Council that are not appointed as a Tribal Council Direct Report Focal or Backup Focal.

CHIEFS COUNCIL is an advisory position, and the Chief(s) may not vote unless their service is needed to establish a quorum, and if the Alternate Council Members are seated or absent.

CONSTITUTION means the Constitution of the Snoqualmie Tribe of Indians which was republished on the 28th day of September 2023, or the most current version of the Constitution as approved by the General Council. In the event of a conflict between this Code and the Constitution, the Constitution shall control.

EMERGENCY TRIBAL COUNCIL MEETING is a meeting called to conduct time sensitive business of the Tribal Council.

TRIBAL COUNCIL DIRECT REPORT FOCAL OR BACKUP FOCAL are appointed on a yearly basis, as a Tribal Council point person for a Tribal Council Direct Report that communicates questions and directions to and from the Tribal Council. The Focal also approves the Direct Report's timesheets/time-off requests, and on a yearly basis will facilitate the Direct Report's Performance Review.

IMMEDIATE FAMILY MEMBER means spouse/domestic partner, parent, grandparent, sibling, child, grandchild, or similarly situated step-family member.

MOTIONS means directions made to introduce a new piece of business or propose a decision or action to be taken. A motion is noted during a Tribal Council session and recorded in the meeting minutes for that session. Motions are formal actions and decisions made by the Tribal Council, and once approved, are effective immediately.

NON-TRIBAL MEMBER means any person who is not enrolled as a Snoqualmie Tribal Member.

NOTE FOR THE RECORD means actions approved by the Tribal Council outside of an Official Tribal Council meeting. The note will be documented in the meeting minutes at the next regularly scheduled meeting.

OFFICIAL MEETING is duly called Regular, Emergency, or Special Meeting of the Snoqualmie Tribal Council.

QUORUM means five (5) seated Tribal Council Members with a Chairperson to preside over the meeting.

REGULAR TRIBAL COUNCIL MEETING refers to the regularly scheduled Thursday meeting; the formal gathering of the Tribal Council to conduct the business of the Tribe by utilizing current technology.

RESOLUTIONS means all final decisions where a formal expression is needed. All Tribal Council Resolutions require a Roll Call Vote, which reflects each individual Tribal Council Member's vote For, Against, or Abstaining and are duly enacted by the Tribal Chairperson and Tribal Secretary.

SNOQUALMIE INDIAN TRIBE ("TRIBE") is the legal name of the federally recognized sovereign Tribe.

SNOQUALMIE TRIBAL COUNCIL (ALSO REFERRED TO AS TRIBAL COUNCIL AND COUNCIL) Members, are elected in accordance with Article IV of the Constitution, make up the Governing Body of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe, and shall include a Tribal Chairperson, nine (9) Elected Council Members, and two (2) Elected Alternate Council Members.

SPECIAL TRIBAL COUNCIL MEETING is a meeting called with a one-item agenda.

STIPEND is a fixed regular payment for services or to defray expenses. It is often distinct because it does not necessarily represent payment for work performed; instead, it represents a payment that enables somebody to be exempt from salaried employment in order to undertake a tribal government role.

TRIBAL COUNCIL OFFICERS are elected in accordance with Article V of the Constitution, and all Tribal Election Laws. Officers include the Tribal Chairperson, Vice Chair, Secretary and Treasurer.

TRIBAL COUNCIL WORKING GROUPS refers to Council only projects, which shall be further defined in a documented mission statement with official goals and objectives. Working Groups exist only for the gathering of information to support Tribal Council decision making. Tribal Council Working Groups are designated on a yearly basis and approved by way of Resolution and motion.

WORKING GROUP FOCAL AND BACKUP FOCAL are responsible for calling Working Group meetings, capturing notes and actionable items, and bringing items from the Working Group to the Tribal Council for action.

SECTION 5.0 – DUTIES OF TRIBAL COUNCIL OFFICERS

- 5.1 CHAIRPERSON is duly elected by the Snoqualmie General Council to serve a four-year term. The Chairperson presides over the Meetings of the Tribal Council and General Council, represents the Tribe for official functions, presents the annual Tribal budget to the Tribal Council for formal approval, and shall sign the official contracts and other instruments of the Tribe but only after their approval by Tribal Council. The Tribal Chairperson does not have a vote when presiding over Tribal Council Meetings, unless otherwise provided by Robert’s Rules of Order.
- 5.2 VICE CHAIRPERSON is duly elected by the Tribal Council to serve a one-year term, following the Annual General Council Meeting. The Vice Chairperson assumes the duties of the Chairperson during the absence or disability of the Chairperson. The Vice Chairperson shall become the Acting Chairperson of the Tribe upon the death, resignation, or removal of the Chairperson and serve until a successor is duly qualified and elected by the Snoqualmie General Council.
- 5.3 TRIBAL TREASURER is duly elected by the Tribal Council to serve a one-year term, following the Annual General Council Meeting. The Tribal Treasurer countersigns checks drawn by the Tribe, periodically reviews the vouchers, books, and other financial records of the Tribe, and serves as the Chief Fundraising Officer for the Tribe’s non-profit entities. The Tribal Treasurer presides over Tribal Council Meetings in the absence of the Chairperson and Vice Chairperson.
- 5.4 SECRETARY OF TRIBAL AFFAIRS (“TRIBAL SECRETARY”) is duly elected by the Tribal Council to serve a one-year term, following the Annual General Council Meeting. The Secretary of Tribal Affairs shall be the custodian of the official records of the Tribe and exercise the powers contained in Article IX of the Constitution.
- 5.5 DEPUTY SECRETARY/SECRETARIES are also considered Tribal Council Officer(s). With consideration of the Tribal Secretary recommendation, a Deputy Secretary/Secretaries may be appointed by the Tribal Council by Resolution to serve one-year term(s). The Deputy Secretary assumes the duties of the Tribal Secretary during the absence or disability of the Tribal Secretary. The Deputy Secretary shall become the Acting Tribal Secretary upon the death, resignation, or removal of the Tribal Secretary and serve until a successor is duly qualified and elected by the Tribal Council.

SECTION 6.0 – DUTIES OF TRIBAL COUNCIL, TRIBAL ELDER, ALTERNATES, AND COUNCIL CHIEF(S)

- 6.1 TRIBAL COUNCIL MEMBERS are elected Tribal Government Officials and are required to keep regular office hours, within the guidelines of the Tribal administration hours Monday – Friday. Council Members must reside within Washington State for the entirety of the elected term and be accessible for the duties of Tribal Council including working weekends, evenings, and travel as required. No relocation expenses will be reimbursed or paid by the Tribe. Tribal Council requires the consistent exercise of discretion, independent judgement, maintain objective attitude in decision making and must have critical thinking skills. Tribal Council Members must be able to understand tribal government programs funded by grants and contracts being brought forward for Tribal Council consideration; provide input into matters coming before the Tribal Council; support all decisions of the Tribal Council; diligently carry out assignments on behalf of the Tribal Council; conduct themselves professionally and ethically in all matters and provide a positive community role model; and promote cooperation and teamwork among Tribal Council, staff, and all other work units and members of the Tribe.

6.2 ALTERNATE TRIBAL COUNCIL MEMBERS are elected Tribal Government Officials that may participate in the deliberations of the council proceedings but may not vote unless their service is needed to establish a quorum. Alternate Tribal Council requires the consistent exercise of discretion, independent judgement, and maintain objective attitude in decision making and must have critical thinking skills. Alternate Tribal Council Members must be able to understand Tribal government programs funded grants and contracts being brought forward for Tribal Council consideration and support all decisions of the Tribal Council. Alternates shall attend all scheduled Council Meetings unless otherwise excused.

6.3 TRIBAL ELDER is a permanent non-voting lifetime position on Tribal Council. Tribal Elder Member requires institutional knowledge of the Tribe and culture of the Tribe, and shall support all decisions of the Tribal Council.

6.4 CHIEF(S) COUNCIL requires institutional knowledge of the Tribe and culture of the Tribe. The Chiefs Council cannot vote but shall support all decisions of the Tribal Council. Chief(s) may not vote unless their service is needed to establish a quorum, and the Alternate Council Members are not seated or absent.

SECTION 7.0 – CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND DISCLOSURE OF GIFTS

7.1 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST. Whenever a Tribal Council Member believes that a potential conflict of interest exists, the member shall declare the conflict at the start of the discussion of the appropriate agenda item. Once the conflict is declared, the Tribal Council Member may participate in the discussion, but is asked to abstain from the voting on the matter if it directly benefits them or their immediate family members.

7.2 DISCLOSURE OF GIFTS. All gifts accepted by a Tribal Council Member on behalf of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe shall be disclosed to the entire Council. Nothing in the section shall be interpreted to interfere with traditional Snoqualmie Indian Tribes gift giving practices, which are a valued and honored part of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe cultural life.

SECTION 8.0 – MEETINGS OF THE TRIBAL COUNCIL

8.1 TRAINING: All meetings of the Tribal Council will utilize as a guide the most recent version of Robert's Rules of Order, unless the Robert's Rules of Order conflict with the Snoqualmie Tribal Constitution or other Tribal law, whereby the Tribal Constitution or law would be the controlling authority. Within ninety (90) days following the elections, all elected Tribal Council Members must successfully complete the following training sessions in accordance with Article IV Section 1 of the Constitution. The following trainings shall be updated on an annual basis and the records verifying compliance with these training requirements shall be maintained by the Secretary of Tribal Affairs:

- (a) Robert's Rules of Order
- (b) Ethics
- (c) Leadership
- (d) Budgets
- (e) Confidentiality

8.2 MEETINGS: Regular, Special, and Emergency Meetings: The Tribal Council shall meet in official session a minimum of thirty-six (36) times a year, or more frequent intervals, at such time and place as shall be established and announced in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

- (i) NOTICE: Notice of the Regular Council Meetings shall be prepared by the Secretary of Tribal Affairs Office and shall be provided to all Council Members. Notice shall be provided via electronic mail or by personal delivery. In the event that an Emergency or Special Council Meeting is called, the Secretary of Tribal Affairs shall immediately notify all Council Members of the Special or Emergency Meeting through any means possible.
- (ii) ATTENDANCE:

 - (a) Tribal Members may attend all regularly scheduled Tribal Council Meetings, except for when the Council meets in Executive Session.
 - (b) Non-Tribal Members shall not be permitted to attend Tribal Council Meetings, unless specifically requested to do so by the Tribal Council.
- (iii) EXECUTIVE SESSION: The Tribal Council may meet in Executive Session to discuss sensitive matters involving personnel, litigation, legal matters, negotiations, and/or confidential or proprietary information. An Executive Session shall be declared by the Presiding Officer, and shall only consist of Tribal Council and Secretary Assistants for record keeping, unless guests or staff are requested or permitted to attend by Tribal Council. Enrollment matters shall always be considered within Executive Session, with the exception of the Introduction of New Members outlined in Section 9.4 of the Enrollment Act.
- (iv) FORMAL STATEMENTS/DOCUMENTS: When any Council Members or other speaker makes a formal statement at a meeting by reading from a document or prepared written summary of a statement, if practicable, the document or summary must be distributed in advance or at that meeting to all members, and a copy shall be maintained by the Secretary of Tribal Affairs as official records of the Tribal Council Meeting.
- (v) WORK SESSION: The Tribal Council shall hold mandatory Work Sessions to review and prepare for official Tribal Council Meetings. Only Tribal Council Members are authorized to attend Work Sessions unless Tribal Council otherwise requests or permits individuals.
- (vi) SPECIAL PROJECTS: The Tribal Council may assign Special Working Groups. The Council Members assigned to the Working Groups List are required to attend Working Groups meetings, as called by the Focal of the Working Group. The entire Tribal Council will be invited to attend all Tribal Council Working Group Meetings.
- (vii) VIDEO/PHONE PARTICIPATION: When approved by the Tribal Council, video/phone participation in meetings shall be arranged through the Secretary of Tribal Affairs. Tribal Council Members who participate via phone or video shall be allowed to vote.

SECTION 9.0 – ORDINANCES AND ACTS

All final decisions shall be embodied in ordinances or acts approved by Tribal Council Resolution and codified by the Tribal Secretary. A resolution is a law that proclaims or gives directive and is duly enacted by the Tribal Chairperson and the Tribal Secretary. Such enactments shall be available for inspection by members of the Tribe. Enacted ordinances shall be in the same form as required by the Snoqualmie Tribe Codification policies.

SECTION 10.0 – NOTES FOR THE RECORD, MOTIONS, AND RESOLUTIONS

All final decisions where a formal expression is needed shall be embodied in a resolution and certified by the Tribal Chairperson and Tribal Secretary, noted in minutes, and shall be available for inspection by members of the Tribe. Enacted resolutions shall be in the same form as required by the Snoqualmie Tribe Codification Statute.

SECTION 11.0 – CERTIFICATION

All acts, ordinances and resolutions shall be dated and numbered, cite the appropriate authority, and include a certificate showing the presence of a quorum and the number of members voting for and against the proposed enactment. Roll call votes shall reflect the names and votes of individual Council Members. All acts, ordinances and resolutions shall conform with the Snoqualmie Tribe Codification Statute.

SECTION 12.0 – TRIBAL COUNCIL DISCIPLINE; GENERAL COUNCIL APPEAL PROCESS AND PROCEDURES FOR REMOVED TRIBAL COUNCIL MEMBERS

12.1 DISCIPLINE OF TRIBAL COUNCIL MEMBERS: Expulsion/removal is a severance action afforded the Tribal Council in the Constitution to police its own members. Expulsion is the means by which the Tribal Council removes for cause a Tribal Council Member from service before the end of their elected term. Cause for expulsion as outlined in the Snoqualmie Constitution Article VII – Vacancies and Removals, Section 2(a) Expulsion and states the following:

- (a) Neglect of Duty
- (b) Gross Malfeasance
- (c) Gross Misconduct

Tribal Council Members may be subject to other discipline by the Tribal Council other than expulsion/removal.

To consider expulsion/removal or any other form of discipline against a Tribal Council Member, the Tribal Council shall meet in a duly called meeting, which shall be scheduled on or before the next Regularly Scheduled Tribal Council Meeting, in Executive Session. Notice will be given by the Tribal Chairperson, and in the case of their absence, the Vice Chair. The Tribal Council Member subject to discipline shall be provided notice of the meeting, including a clear description of the complaint(s), and an opportunity to be heard at the meeting. No person other than Tribal Council Members shall be present at the meeting to consider discipline. The Tribal Council shall consider the charges and the explanation, if any, of the Tribal Council Member subject to discipline and, after deliberation, make findings in the form of a Resolution. The Tribal Council Member subject to discipline shall not be present during the deliberation and vote. A majority vote of present Tribal Council Members is required to impose discipline.

The Tribal Council may in its sole discretion provide for discipline that is less than expulsion/ removal if the facts warrant such a finding. Tribal Council may impose, by majority vote, a sanction or sanctions against any Tribal Council Member or Members who are found to have violated Tribal law or procedure. Such sanctions may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) verbal or written reprimand;
- (b) restitution, if money is owed to the Tribe;
- (c) suspension;
- (d) or other sanctions in accordance with Tribal law. A finding of the Tribal Council that imposes a sanction less than expulsion/removal is final and not subject to further review.

If a Tribal Council Member has been expelled or removed from the Tribal Council by that deliberative body, there is one last avenue of appeal – the General Council. The Snoqualmie Constitution states the following:

“ARTICLE VII – VACANCIES AND REMOVALS, SECTION 1, EXPULSION (C), A Council Member who has been removed shall have the right within thirty (30) days of the vote for removal to file an appeal to the General Council. In the event of such an appeal, the Tribal Council shall promptly call a special meeting of the General Council, at which special meeting, it shall be decided whether the removed officer shall be permanently removed. Failure to obtain a quorum of the General Council at such a special meeting shall be considered affirmation of removal of any officer.”

12.2 APPEAL PROCEDURE: The General Council Special Meeting to hear the appeal of a Tribal Council Member who has been removed shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of procedure in this section.

- (i) NOTICE OF PRE-APPEAL REVIEW: Prior to the commencement of a Special Meeting of the General Council at which the Council Member who has been removed shall appeal to the General Council, the Tribal Council shall afford the Council Member who has been removed written notice of the date, time and place for a Pre-Appeal Review.
- (ii) PRE-APPEAL REVIEW: At the Pre-Appeal Review, the Tribal Council Member who has been removed may review, without harassment, all documents pertaining to the appeal to the General Council by putting in a supervised visit request. They are permitted to request copies of documents by filling out a Secretary records request for the identified documents. They shall not be permitted to be accompanied by any legal counsel or other representative. Present with the Tribal Council Member who has been removed will be the Snoqualmie Tribal Council Secretary, a member of the Snoqualmie Tribal Public Safety Department and a witness determined and arranged by the Snoqualmie Tribal Secretary. Full and undeterred access shall be provided to the Council member who has been removed.
- (iii) NOTICE OF INTENTION TO APPEAL AT THE PRE-REVIEW: The Tribal Council Member who has been removed shall give confirmation to the Tribal Secretary to appear at the Pre-Appeal Review in writing, which may be delivered electronically, within three (3) days before the set date. Failure to do so shall be deemed a waiver of the right to a Pre-Appeal Review.
- (iv) SPECIAL MEETING OF THE SNOQUALMIE GENERAL COUNCIL NOTICE: Promptly after such time as the Pre-Appeal Review takes place, or the failure of the Tribal Council Member who has been removed to confirm appearance at the Pre-Appeal Review, whichever is later, the Tribal Secretary shall send the Council Member who has been removed and General Council Members a written notice which states the nature of the Special Meeting of the Snoqualmie General Council the date, time and place. The notice shall be served no later than thirty (30) days prior to the Special Meeting.
- (v) FORM AND DATE OF SERVICE: All notices and papers sent to the Tribal Council Member who has been removed shall be sent by electronic mail followed with a paper copy delivered by federal Express or similar delivery service or delivered in person. All correspondence between the Council Member who has been removed and the Snoqualmie Tribal Council shall be signed by the Snoqualmie Tribal Council Secretary. The effective date of the notice shall be the date of its delivery or attempted delivery at the last known address as reflected in the records of the Tribal Secretary of the Tribal Council Member who has been removed.

- (vi) PRESIDING OFFICER: The presiding officer at the Special Meeting of the Snoqualmie General Council shall be the Tribal Chairperson. The Tribal Chairperson shall ensure adherence to the policy and procedures outlined herein.
- (vii) PRESENTATION: Both the Tribal Council and the Tribal Council Member who has been removed shall present to the General Council assembled by oral and or documentary evidence. Witnesses, if any, shall be called. Neither the Tribal Council nor the Tribal Council Member who has been removed may be represented or accompanied by any legal counsel or attorney.
- (viii) QUESTIONS: The presiding officer will entertain written questions submitted from the General Membership. Five (5) questions shall be chosen by the Tribal Council and five (5) questions shall be chosen by the Council Member who has been removed. Both the Tribal Council Representative and the Tribal Council Member who has been removed may answer each question.
- (a) QUESTION WRITING: Ten (10) minutes will be allowed for writing questions to the Tribal Council and the Tribal Council Member who has been removed.
- (b) SUBMISSION AND COLLECTION: Written questions will be collected, and the last call will be given. The written questions will be collected and placed in separate boxes, one labeled to Tribal Council's questions, the other to the Tribal Council Member questions who has been removed.
- (c) SELECTING QUESTIONS: A Tribal Council representative will blind-draw five (5) questions and the removed Tribal Council Member will blind draw five (5) questions.
- (d) RESPONDING: Three (3) minutes per question totaling fifteen (15) minutes for the responding session each. The removed Tribal Council Member shall respond first, and Tribal Council will respond second.
- (e) CLOSING STATEMENTS: The Tribal Council Member who has been removed shall present a closing statement. The Tribal Council shall present a closing statement second.
- (ix) SECRET BALLOT VOTE: At such time as the Tribal Council representative and Tribal Council Member who has been removed have completed their respective presentations, the Tribal Chairperson shall call for a vote by secret ballot of the General Council.
- (a) To affirm the action of the Tribal Council expelling the removed Tribal Council Member from the Tribal Council for cause.
- (b) To overturn the Tribal Council's action and restore the removed Tribal Council Member to his/her Council position and reinstate to Tribal Council for the remainder of their elected term.
- (x) VOTING COMMITTEE: In the absence of a seated Election Board, the Snoqualmie Tribal Council shall appoint a voting committee from the floor or Tribal Council can retain a third party to administer elections. The Voting Committee shall consist of the Snoqualmie Tribal Secretary, two Tribal Members, and one Non-Tribal Member.

- (xi) VOTING COMMITTEE DUTIES: The Election Board, Voting Committee or administrator shall ensure that ballots are distributed to valid voters, collect the ballots and count and record on a large paper in the presence and view of the assembled General Council such votes. The Election Board, Voting Committee, or administrator may utilize an electronic voting system rather than paper ballots and a large paper to record the vote count.
- (xii) COMPLETION OF THE SECRET BALLOT VOTE: At the completion of the count, the Tribal Chairperson shall announce the vote. The paper on which was recorded the vote count and all ballots shall be placed in an envelope and sealed and kept in the Tribal Records by the Snoqualmie Tribal Secretary. If an electronic voting system is used for the vote, the official report from the electronic voting system shall be kept in the Tribal Records by the Tribal Secretary.
- (xiii) GENERAL COUNCIL RESOLUTION: The final vote shall be recorded in a General Council Resolution.
- (xiv) NOTIFICATION TO THE TRIBAL COUNCIL MEMBER WHO HAS BEEN REMOVED: A copy of the General Council Resolution shall be provided by electronic mail to the Tribal Council Member in question, followed with a paper copy delivered by Federal Express or similar delivery service.
- (xv) FINAL AND PERMANENT: The vote of the General Council at the Special Meeting exhausts all avenues of appeal for the Tribal Council Member who has been removed. The General Council decision is final and binding.
- (xvi) IN THE EVENT THE TRIBAL COUNCIL MEMBER IS REINSTATED: In the event the vote is to reinstate the Tribal Council Member, the Tribal Council Member shall be immediately reinstated for the remainder of their elected term. The Tribal Council Member's stipend shall also be reinstated as of the date of the Special Meeting of the Snoqualmie General Council. There shall be no back pay.
- (xvii) ADJOURNMENT: The Tribal Chairperson will adjourn the Special Meeting of the Snoqualmie General Council.

SECTION 13.0 – VOLUNTARY RESIGNATIONS FROM TRIBAL COUNCIL

- 13.1 Resignations from Tribal Chairperson, Tribal Council, or Alternate Council positions shall be submitted in writing to the Tribal Council Secretary.
- 13.2 Any Tribal Council Member other than the Chairperson must resign from their current position prior to the election notice to the General Council in order to declare an intent to run for the position of Chairperson. The Tribal Council Member remains in his/her position with full voting rights until such time as the election is held at which point the position is vacated for the person who may be elected to fill that position.
- 13.3 Alternate Council Member must resign from their current position prior to the election notice to the General Council in order to declare an intent to run for office for a Full Time Tribal Council Position. The current Alternate Council Member remains in his/her position until such time as the election is held at which point the position is vacated for the person who may be elected to fill that position.

SECTION 14.0 – VOLUNTARY RESIGNATIONS AS AN OFFICER OF THE TRIBAL COUNCIL

Resignations from Vice Chairperson, Secretary and/or Treasurer from their official capacity shall be submitted in writing to the Tribal Chairperson who shall immediately call the Tribal Council to hold an officer election for the vacant officer position. The person resigning their officer position shall remain on Tribal Council.

SECTION 15.0 – PROVISIONS AS CUMULATIVE

The provisions of this Chapter shall be cumulative as to existing law.

SECTION 16.0 – REPEAL PROVISIONS AND CONFORMING AMENDMENTS

Any laws or Resolutions found to be inconsistent with this legislative act are repealed to the extent of their inconsistency.

SECTION 17.0 – SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this Chapter are severable and if any part or provisions shall be held void by any court of competent jurisdiction, the decision of the court so holding shall not affect or impair any of the remaining parts or provisions of this Chapter.

SECTION 18.0 – NO WAIVER OF SOVEREIGN IMMUNITY

Nothing herein shall constitute a waiver of the Tribe's sovereign immunity.
