

SNOQUALMIE INDIAN TRIBE-WSDA TRIBAL EMERGENCY FOOD ASSISTANCE VOUCHER APPLICATION

APPLICATION

The Tribal Council of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe ("Tribe") hereby establishes a Tribal Emergency Food Assistance Voucher Program ("Program") under the guidance of the Washington State Department of Agriculture (WSDA) Emergency Food Assistance Program (EFAP) to provide emergency short-term food assistance to qualified Snoqualmie Tribal households as outlined in the eligibility requirements below.

- A. For purposes of this Policy, a household is defined as those persons who reside in the same home as a family unit. The term does not include persons sharing the same general house when the living style is primarily that of a dormitory or commune.
- B. To be eligible for a voucher, a household must have:
 1. At least one adult enrolled Snoqualmie Indian Tribal Member; or
 2. An enrolled minor child, provided the minor does not live in a Tribal household already receiving a voucher.
 3. The eligible applicant must spend at least 51% of the month in the household to apply for a voucher.
- C. To be eligible for a voucher, the household must have experienced one or more of the below qualifying life changes within the last 90 days from date of application:
 1. Change in legal marital status that affects financial stability (i.e., marriage, divorce, death, legal separation).
 2. Change in number of dependents (i.e., birth, adoption, death, or addition of a vulnerable adult).
 3. Change in employment status due to job loss.
 4. Loss of, or significant change to, current financial status that threatens food stability.
 5. Facing eviction or homelessness which is causing food insecurity (e.e., sharing housing due to economic hardship, living in hotels, living in transitional shelters, migrant children, etc.)
 6. Victim of domestic violence or families/children that fall under protective services and are in need of food assistance.
 7. Considered low income and on the Tribe's STOWW program for utility assistance must have been approved on the STOWW program prior to applying for voucher, must have applied for STOWW within 30 days of applying for this program to ensure verification of low income.
- D. Eligible households must complete and submit Tribal Emergency Food Voucher Application, sign the understanding statement, and complete and submit a Form W-9.

APPLICATION PROCESS

- A. Complete the Tribal Emergency Food Voucher Application and submit it to the General Resources Department with a Form W-9.
- B. After the General Resources Department receives all necessary documents, the application will be reviewed for completeness.
- C. All denials will be reviewed by the Program Manager for accuracy prior the applicant being notified.
- D. The General Resources Department processes the administrative functions within 14 business days of receipt of a completed application (i.e., denials/approval letters, processing documents through finance, etc.)
- E. Voucher funding must be used at a recognized store or grocery. The store must be listed on the top of the receipt, all items must be easily discernable, and the purchases must have been made within 60 days of distribution of funding.
- F. The grocery store or vendor must be in Washington State for vouchers issued with state or federal grant funds.

LIMITS ON DISTRIBUTION

- A. Vouchers are only available once per household per month for a period of no more than two (2) months within a state fiscal year (July 1-June 30). A new application is required each cycle that a household is requesting to access the program.
